DE GRUYTER OPEN ACCESS BOOKS PROGRAM

De Gruyter Open is a leading publisher of Open Access academic content. Publishing in all major academic disciplines, De Gruyter Open (www.degruyteropen.com) is home to more than 350 scholarly journals and over 100 books.

De Gruyter Open Access Book Program welcomes English language book proposals and manuscripts in all fields of Sociology.

Open Access Book Program

This program offers a variety of publishing solutions and services for individual authors (Author-Pays Model) and organizations alike. While the program focuses on scholarly monographs, we also welcome edited volumes, reference works, and conference proceedings. Our innovative approach to publishing results in an efficient review process for each book proposal and manuscript, and guarantees a quick turnaround time from book manuscript to publication.

Benefits for authors and organizations

- ▶ Free of charge to all readers, printed copies sold to libraries and individuals, by De Gruyter Open and distributors (e.g. Amazon)
- ▶ Professional creation of a PDF version of the manuscript
- ▶ All books published under Creative Commons license
- ▶ Online hosting and distribution platform
- ▶ Product page at www.degruyter.com website
- ▶ Allocation of DOI and automatic metadata distribution to CrossRef
- ▶ Arranging for coverage by ebook distributors, full-text repositories, open access directories and long-time preservation services
- ▶ Strong marketing support for each publication with well-established marketing tools
- ▶ "Print on Demand" service
- ▶ Royalties for authors and organizations from print-edition sales
